Now that we have completed our sophomore year at Pocahontas High School, we are astonished with the idea that we will be Juniors. It seems just yesterday that we were contentedly swinging on the swing sets at the Elementary School or roaming the halls with our schedules and a bewildered look in seventh grade. We have learned, matured, and grown closer in our four years at Pocahontas, and we are eagerly anticipating what the future holds for us.

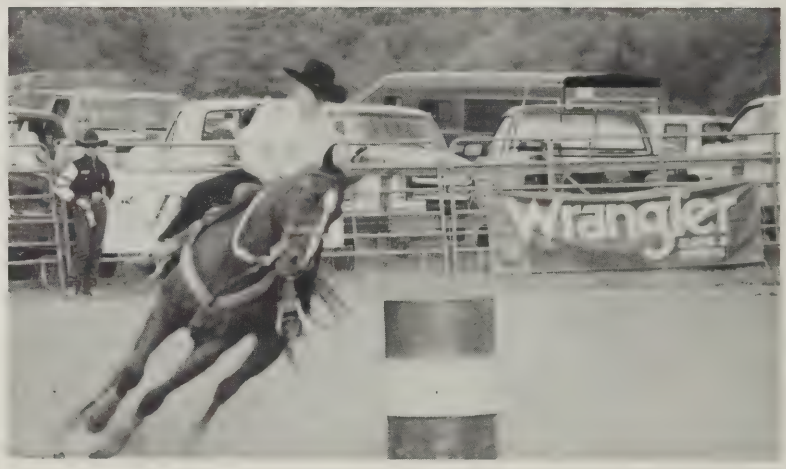
"School Life"

Having a Blast!!



Cortne,

Since the day you entered my life I have known that you were a very special person I have cherished the years that I have spent watching you grow up to be the beautiful young woman that you are today. Mere words cannot express how proud I am of you and all that you have accomplished. Each year I have watched you grow and mature into a young lady that I consider my best friend. Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your life. I wish only the best for you in your future and know that you will continue to be an inspiration to me and to all who know you. Know that I will always respect, love, and cherish you. And you will always be "Mommie's 1st Baby!!!!"

Love,

Mom

Dustin,

It's hard to believe that this day has come. It seems only a short time ago you had just started pre-k. (You've grown up so fast)...

We really can't put into words just how "special" you are to us, the word "proud" just doesn't say enough. Everything you have went at in your life, you have gave 100%... sometimes we think 110%.

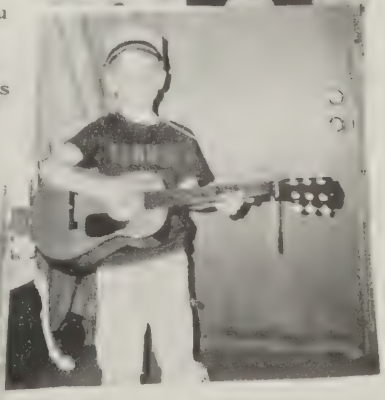
Life is tough and can be hard. but you have proved to your dad and I that although bad things happen to us all, it is important to remember to learn from each fall.

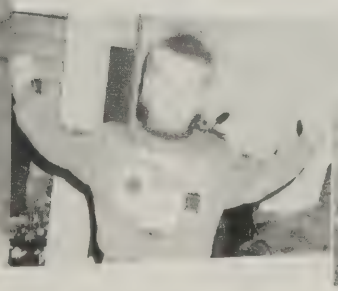
We have taught you the best we know how, and in return we have learned a lot from you. Man, we are so proud of you! We thank God everyday for bringing you into our life.

Always remember to follow your heart and be yourself... most important, never forget there is always someone above looking down on you.

Love, Your Best Friends,

Mom and Dad





Samantha,

We can't believe your graduation is here. Seems like only yesterday, you started school, the years have gone by so fast. We wish only the best for you, in the years to come. Work & Study hard and I know you will always be successful. God bless our beautiful grand daughter & daughter, and keep you always in his care

Love,
Dad, Papa & MaMa Creasy

Samantha,

Hard to believe you are graduating! The years have gone by so fast. You have been very special to us from the first time we saw you. Someday as you mature we hope you realize the amount of love we have for you

You have worked hard to accomplish the things you have. So keep up the hard work. Always make the decisions that are best for YOU! Go with your heart and you will never be wrong

We are very proud of you! May God Bless and keep you safe.

Love,
MawMaw Nells
PawPaw Frank

Well Samantha the time has finally arrived for you to start living the second half of your life

For the last 13 years you have worked really hard to get to where you are today You have always put your heart and soul into everything that you've done and you always give it 100%

You have always made me proud to be your mom. I know things haven't always been smooth sailing in your life, but no matter how bad things seem to be you've always held your head up high and kept that beautiful smile on your face

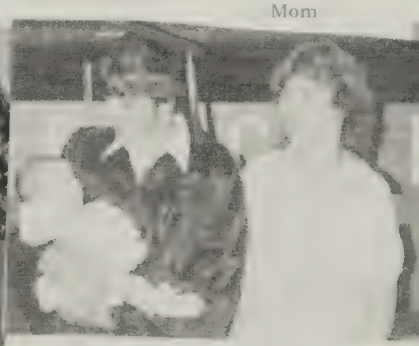
I hope that when you get out into the "adult" world, you keep that same positive outlook that you have now. There will be a lot of bumps in the road, but as long as you keep the same positive out look you will make it over the rough spots

On April 9, 1984 when you were born not only did I get a daughter, I got a friend, and I hope we can always be friends

Enjoy your life and have fun, but don't ever take it for granted. If you make the right choices and use your better judgement, you will have a great life, but even if you do make a few mistakes learn from them and move on

Congratulations and Good Luck in life and love and no matter how old you are, you will always be my "Baby Girl"

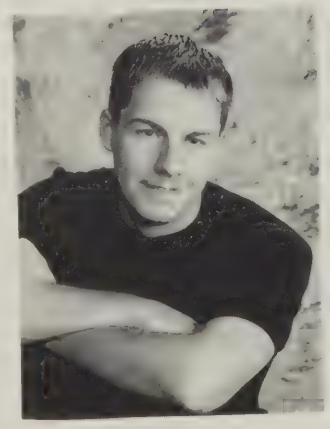
Love,
Mom



T.J.,

I now say farewell as you prepare to graduate. I have watched you grow into a young man. And will always be proud of the things you achieve in life. And be there if you need me. Let God always guide you and keep you.

Love Always,
Dad



Our Firstborn Son,

Dear Levi, It's been 18 years since we first laid eyes upon you and it is indeed a difficult task to express in words our pride and admiration in all that you have accomplished. We realize what a fine and unique young man you have become and our hearts are filled with love for you. Your desire to do what's right and do it to the best of your ability will take you far some day. The determination and persistence you possess will allow you to become anything and everything you set your mind to. Stay on that straight and narrow path and try not to let others choose your destiny for you. Keep your eyes wide open and know that we are there for you wherever you may go whtever you may do- however old you may grow. It has been a pleasure watching you grow into such an exceptional teenager and young man. We are sincerely grateful and Praise God Every Day for Blessing us with such a wonderful "First Born" son and brother.

We love You Forever,
Mom, Dad, and Tanner

My Dearest Adriane,

Where did the time all go? Here it is time for you to graduate. These 12 years really flew by.

Seems like only yesterday when you started Kinder Care. Then grade school and 4 years of High School.

I will miss going to the school and watching you and your teammates play basketball.

Soon you must say farewell to your classmates, friends, and teachers.

I wish for you the best for the future and may your path always have light to guide you as you go out into the world.

I do wish you the best always!

Love,
Aunt Grace

driane.

It was always your dream to play ball and raduate from Pocahontas High School. Now it's time say farewell and open a new chapter in your life. May God bless and protect you in whatever you choose in life. Let all your hopes and dreams come true. We are very proud of you, and will always love you. Thanks for all the memories.

Love You,
Mom and Dad

Son,

It seems that just yesterday you were born. Now you're a young man. Time passes so fast, we can't keep up with it. We hope that when you get out on your own, you take the lord with you. We will miss you because you're the last one to leave the nest.

Love Always,

Mom, Dad, Kenny, and Sherry

Tony,

While this is the end of one phase of your life, it is the wonderful beginning of another. Dad and I just want you to know how very proud we are of you and how very, very much we love you. We hope and pray you will work hard and become the successful and productive citizen that we know you can be. You have been a joy in our lives and we are looking forward to seeing you start your adult life. We pray that it will be as fulfilling and happy as you have made ours. Just always be honest, hard working, caring, and good fortunate will come your way. We will always stand beside you.

We love you,

Dad, Mom, Sheri, and JR

Cherish,

We can't believe it but here you are. It seems like only yesterday you were going to grade school, high school, and now you are a senior. You have really grown up fast. We wish that we could keep you little forever, but we can't. We are so proud of you, and the beautiful young lady you have become. You are and will always be very precious to us. You are smart and have a good head on your shoulders, and we know that whatever you do you do it with the Lord in your heart and by you side. He will always be there, especially when nobody else is. Never forget how much we love you, and will always be here for you no matter what. We love you forever, always and a day. Good luck!

Love Always,

Dad, Mom, and Emily

Antwain,

You've made it. We're very proud of you. It has been great watching you grow into a nice young man. No matter where you go or what you do, we hope that you will be successful at accomplishing the goals you have set for yourself.

Love Ya and Best Wishes!
Your Family

Tera,

This is your senior year! Look around...take in this moment, it will never come again! We feel sad for the pain you experienced from your knee injury. We witnessed both strength and tolerance in the way you overcame physical and mental pain. No one can argue that you're one tough lady. Best of love and luck in your future. We'll be right there by your side to support you, as always.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Monica, and Jonathan

P.S. Yes...Maegan will make it OK next year without you.

B.J.,

The years have gone by too quickly. It seems like just yesterday I couldn't believe you were going to school, and now your graduating. I am so proud of you.

Love,

Mom

Beth,

You were a beautiful child and you are now a beautiful young lady. We know you will be a very caring and compassionate nurse. We wish you all of the happiness in the future. We love you very much.

Love,

Granny and Dale

Jason,

Congratulations and best wishes to a future full of happiness. Your family is very proud of you. At times it seems like just yesterday, you were a kid but you have become a great young man. We hope life brings you so much happiness as you have brought us. Good luck in what choices you make in life.

We Love You,

Mom, Dad, Matthew, and Phillip

Zac,

Even though you're six foot three,
You're still our baby boy you see.
My how time has past us by,
You're graduating from Pocahontas High.
As you contemplate your school finality,
May the future bring you peace, joy, and prosperity.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, Jamie, and Buttons

John Paul,

I don't know where to begin even telling you how proud of you I am and how much I Love You. You've been through a lot and came a long way, when I look at you I still see my little boy but now you've grown up and getting ready to graduate and eventually go off on your own. That will break my heart, but I always want the best for you because you are such a wonderful son- the very best a mother could have. I love you John Paul and I'm so proud of you son.

Love,
Mom and Samuel Hayden

Well Stephanie it's hard to believe the time has come for you to graduate. It's a sad time for us, and it's hard to let you go. Just like your first day of school, I hated to see you leave. I guess that's why it was easy for you to get "schoolitis" as Momaw called it (You not wanting to go to school). Well I have enjoyed having you home.

It seems like yesterday we were holding our beautiful baby girl, but now look at what a beautiful young lady you've become. The Lord has truly blessed us. We love you very much. Thank you Stephanie for being there for us. I hope we can always be here for you. Just always remember your roots, and your foundation Jesus Christ being the chief corner stone. He will always be there. We are so very proud of you. Remember to trust in the Lord and He will bless you. We love you and appreciate you.

DATER'S BILL OF RIGHTS

I have the right to refuse a date without feeling guilty.

I can ask for a date without feeling rejected or inadequate if the answer is no.

I do not have to act macho.

I may choose not to act seductively.

If I don't want physical closeness, I have the right to say no.

I have the right to start a relationship slowly, to say, "I want to know you better before I become involved".

I have the right to be myself without changing to suit others.

I have the right to change a relationship when my feelings change. I can say, "We use to be close, but I want something else now".

If I am told a relationship is changing, I have the right not to blame or change myself to keep going.

I have the right not to dominate or to be dominated.

I have the right to act one way with one person and a different way with someone else.

I have the right to change my goals whenever I want to.

I have the right to tell someone I do not like the way I have been treated and that I choose to end the date or relationship.

I have the right not to be responsible for my partner's behavior.

I have the right to express my opinions and have them respected.
